Join experienced educators Rick Reynolds, founder of Engaging Every Student, and Jacelyn Downey of Audubon Rockies as we explore a variety of resources from the USFWS, Audubon Rockies, BLM, and other partners. We seek to inspire students to think critically about sagebrush ecosystems and ways to protect them and their diverse species. Help us touch the hearts and minds of tens of thousands of young people over the next decade!

FREE Resources + Opportunities Include:

- Engaging lesson plans for grades 4-12, aligned to the Next Generation Science Standards + Common Core State Standards
- Sagebrush Ecosystem trunks with hands-on materials
- Posters
- Videos
- Field experiences + service learning opportunities for students
- Hands-on workshops + field experiences for educators + partners

The Power of Partnerships

Expert partners can help support educators. Lessons have been reviewed by more than 50 partners, and excellent feedback has been integrated into a newly-revised curriculum. All stakeholder perspectives have been represented, including those of the states, the federal family, teachers, non-governmental organizations, and ranchers.
