

INFUSE CIVICS INTO PRE-SERVICE ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION

Pre-Service Faculty Workshop
Spring 2023

Pre-Service Faculty: Apply to attend a 3-part training in Environmental Action Civics

Are you currently teaching environmental education with secondary pre-service teachers, and want to bump up your teaching of civic engagement?

Earth Force is accepting applications from pre-service faculty who are interested in participating in a training opportunity to learn about student-led project based learning and the importance of civic action!

Faculty will participate in monthly professional development from January-March 2023 and will complete the program with a revised syllabus.

Spaces are limited. Selected faculty will be notified by the end of December 2022.
